

I am a radio amateur (K2QJV). I participate in supplying communication during and before disasters occur (training). Broadbanding will seriously impede my mission to supply communication during disasters i.e. hurricanes, tornadoes and security functions. Before decisions are made one should study those countries who adopted broadbanding and subsequently abandoned it.